Holding On to Your Kids in a Digital Age An Interview

Reynolds: Hold On to Your Kids was published in 2004 and I understand that the book is soon to be re-released with two new chapters added. Neufeld: Facebook came out in 2005 and changed everything. Without peer orientation there would have never been social networking. So I described the phenomena that explained the shape of the digital universe and wrote about how parents can come to terms with it. We can't turn back the clock, nor should we, but we need to go forward with awareness.
